Digestive health support

Calcium carbonate is an alkalizing agent that can neutralize excess stomach acid. This property may make marine calcium useful as an antacid.

Menstrual support

Calcium's role in cellular signaling may help to manage the symptoms of pre-menstrual syndrome (PMS) such as bloating, discomfort, food cravings and mood swings. This is most useful for women with a low dietary intake of calcium.

Kidney health support

Marine calcium may be helpful for managing the level of phosphates in the blood. This effect is most likely to help people with poor kidney function, which can result in high serum phosphate levels.

Bone health support

Marine calcium may help to manage the loss of bone mass that typically occurs with age. This benefit is especially helpful for post-menopausal women with high rates of bone loss.

Real emails from USA. We treat questions from customers seriously.

Hi Lillian,

Yes, this looks very impressive and it is helpful that you have US warehousing. Please send the specification with composition %s , micro and heavy metal parameters and results (COA), as well as pricing on the attached Cost to SI sheet. Please provide this information for both the organic beet juice powder and the organic beet root powder. Nutritional information would be appreciated! High nitrate?

We look forward to evaluating your product.

100% Soluble
in Shake

Question from real customer.

Hi Tina,

I have tasted your beet compared to the current supply, and the taste is good, but a little different. I also noticed some little solid bits in the shaker when I mixed it (see attached photo), and the last sip had some solids that stuck in my mouth. Our current material is 100% soluble, and unfortunately, this one is not.

Is there anything you can do to remove the insoluble portion?

Chris

How we solve it.

According to Chris' request, we improved it and show the sample as left pic. Chris replied below,

Hi Tina,

Those new improved samples look great – please send those samples. If they taste good and have the same cost, I think it will be easy to justify giving you the business.

After samples were delivered, Chris' feedback as below,

Hi Tina,

I tasted the samples, and Sample #2 is very good. We can make this work for our product!

Hi Lillian,

Your company does a very nice job with providing documentation. On paper, it looks like a wonderful product! Can you please send us samples of both the organic beet root powder and the organic beet juice powder to the address in my signature line?

So, is this CIF pricing the same as FOB CA warehouse? Does it include the tariff costs?

Email of a top brand from USA.

Hello Tina,

I received the sample today and evaluated the powder. It looks and taste similar to our current material and likely a good option for us. The samples were not marked with a lot # and did not have a lot specific COA so I cannot use these for qualification testing. Can we get a lot representative sample of what is in stock (either in CA or NJ)? Do you have multiple lots in stock? Once we receive a sample with a lot# and its COA, we can send this out for identity and heavy metal testing to qualify this material and then follow up with an order if passed. Thanks and talk soon.

- ✓ Sample with lot No. and its COA will be offered.
- ✓ A lot representative sample in CA/NJ can be offered.
- ✓ Identity and heavy metal testing is supported. (We have heavy metal testing report by Eurofins. Especially the lead content is less than 0.5ppm.
